REPORT

The Committee on Appropriations submits the following report revising the allocations to subcommittees set forth in Senate Report 105-31 (June 19, 1997), and further revised in Senate Report 105-46 (July 10, 1997), Senate Report 105-50 (July 17, 1997), Senate Report 105-57 (July 24, 1997), Senate Report 105-74 (September 8, 1997), Senate Report 105-77 (September 10, 1997), Senate Report 105-88 (September 25, 1997), Senate Report 105-91 (September 30, 1997), Senate Report 105-104 (October 9, 1997), Senate Report 105-116 (October 28, 1997), Senate Report 105-145 (November 8, 1997, and Senate Report 105-155 (November 13, 1997).

Section 302(e) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, as amended, provides that at any time after a committee reports its allocations such committee may report to its House an alteration of such allocations. This report is submitted pursuant to this section.

On June 27, 1997, the Committee on the Budget filed a revised 602(a) allocation for the Committee reflecting an increase of $3,741,000,000 in budget authority and $13,000,000 in outlays (Congressional Record, pp. S6785-6786). These amounts were provided under the provisions of sections 202 and 206 of H. Con. Res. 84, the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 1998, which mandate an increase to the Committee's 602(a) allocation when certain conditions relating to funding of international affairs activities are met.

On July 21, 1997, the Committee on the Budget filed another revised 602(a) allocation for the Committee reflecting an increase of $8,766,000,000 in budget authority and $3,505,000,000 in outlays. These amounts were provided under the provisions of sections 203 and 206 of H. Con. Res. 84, the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 1998, which mandate an increase to the Committee's 602(a) allocation when certain conditions relating to funding of section 8 housing assistance and to funding of international affairs activities are met.

On September 3, 1997, the Committee on the Budget filed a revised allocation for the Committee reflecting an additional $245,000,000 in budget authority and $230,000,000 in outlays. These amounts were allocated pursuant to section 314(b)(2) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, as amended, which mandates an increase to the Committee's allocation when certain conditions relating to funding of continuing disability reviews are met. In addition, the Committee on the Budget filed a revised allocation to reflect an additional $700,000,000 in budget authority and $257,000,000 in outlays. These amounts were allocated pursuant to section 205 of H. Con. Res. 84, the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 1998, which mandates an increase to the Committee's allocation when conditions relating to funding of certain Federal land acquisition and exchanges are met.

On October 8, 1997, the Committee on the Budget filed another revised allocation (Congressional Record, p. S10715) for the Committee reflecting a decrease of $486,000,000 in budget authority—from $8,666,000,000 to $8,180,000,000—in the special allowance for funding of section 8 housing assistance originally provided on July 21, 1997.

On the same date the Committee on the Budget filed another revised 302(a) allocation for the Committee (Congressional Record, p. S10716) of $127,000,000 in budget authority and $127,000,000 in outlays. These amounts were allocated to the Committee pursuant to section 314(b)(2) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, as amended, which mandates an increase to the Committee's allocation when certain conditions relating to funding of an Earned Income Tax Credit [EITC] compliance initiative are met.

On October 28, 1997, the Committee on the Budget filed a revised allocation (Congressional Record, p. S11268) for the Committee withdrawing the $700,000,000 in budget authority and $257,000,000 in outlays previously allocated to the Committee on September 3, 1997, for funding of certain Federal land acquisition and exchanges. These amounts were restored by the Committee on the Budget on December 15, 1997 (Congressional Record, p. S12722), after the enactment into law of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 1998 (Public Law 105-83).

On November 8, 1997, the Committee on the Budget filed (Congressional Record, p. S12094) an increased allocation of $45,000,000 in budget authority and $43,000,000 in outlays reflecting the change in conference funding levels for continuing disability reviews.

On November 9, 1997, the Committee on the Budget filed a revised allocation (Congressional Record, p. S12409) reflecting an increase of $140,000,000 in budget authority and $7,000,000 in outlays for conference funding levels of arrearages in the Foreign Operations appropriations bill. On December 15, 1997, the Committee on the Budget further revised the allocation by withdrawing the allocation of $3,521,000,000 originally made on July 27, 1997, for International Monetary Fund [IMF] funding. The Committee expects that the Committee on the Budget will soon file an increase in the allocation of $17,861,000,000 in budget authority consistent with the levels recommended in S. 1769, making appropriations to the IMF. This amount is consistent with section 314(b)(3) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, as amended, which mandates an adjustment when certain conditions relating to IMF funding are met.

The Committee notes that these allocations are consistent with section 302 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, as amended. Section 602 of the Congressional Budget Act, one of the authorities under which previous allocations of the Committee for fiscal year 1998 had been filed, was repealed by section 10118 of the Budget Enforcement Act of 1997 (title X of the Balanced Budget Act of 1997; Public Law 105–33).
